JUDGMENT

Raman, J.

Petitioner is the father of the alleged detenu by name, Sreeja. After completing her nursing course, she was working as a nurse in the Cosmopolitan Hospital at Thiruvananthapuram. She was found missing on 7/12/2006 while she was working in the night shift from 4/12/2006 to 9/12/2006. On 7/12/2006 she left home for duty but she did not return. Enquiries were made in all places where she is likely to go. But such enquiries revealed that she has not visited in such places. Accordingly, a complaint was lodged before the Sub Inspector of police, Poonthura and Crime No.300/2006 of Poonthura Police Station was registered. While the investigation was in progress, the petitioner has preferred this writ petition. It is alleged that the investigation was not effective. The girl is 23 years old. Pursuant to the directions of this Court, investigation was strengthened and the alleged detenu was found out from Bombay where she is working in a private hospital. The girl was searched and found out and she is produced by the Police. The learned Government Pleader appearing on behalf of the State sought permission to produce the alleged detenu in Court. Both the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader are present. We heard them. We interacted with the girl and she stated that she wants to got with her parents, she is working in a private hospital at Bombay and she had gone on her own accord. Considering the fact that she is a major and she wants to go with her parents, she is set free.

Writ Petition is closed.
